DAY 1 - Sunday 15 MAY 2016:

Phuket

Whether you're drawn to the fun and vibrant nightlife, the infinite stretches of white sand, or exclusive slices of barefoot luxury, Phuket has something to offer everyone. From here, you can tick off your paradise-island bucket list: hopping over to James Bond Island, and the famous Maya Bay where The Beach was filmed. As for nightlife, Phuket Town has a slower pace to other island hotspots, and is well worth visiting for its colonial architecture; heading north you'll find a more stylish collection of restaurants, and if you just want something simple, you'll find plenty of lantern-lit haunts, right on the waterfront.

DAY 1 - Sunday 15 MAY 2016:

Private 35 seater coach from Phuket Airport to hotel

When you arrive at Phuket Airport, you will be welcomed with a flower garland by ladies in traditional Thai attire. You will then be transferred to your coach where your guide will escort you to the hotel. Each guest will receive a bottle of cold water and a separate luggage truck will be provided. The journey will take 30 minutes.

Hotel Outrigger Laguna Phuket Resort and Villas, 10 x Three Bedroom Pool Villa.

Meal Plan Bed & Breakfast

Experience an idyllic home away from home in Phuket at Outrigger Laguna, which offers luxurious accommodation set around a secluded lagoon and lush green landscapes.

The suites and villas have contemporary, colourful interiors which take inspiration from both traditional Thai style and their beachfront setting. They have generous kitchen, living and dining areas and balconies and patios looking out over the lagoon. Some, including the spacious pool villas, have their own private pools.

The resort's restaurants include Panache, which serves up Asian and international cuisine indoors or by the pool, and Baan Aroi, where you can enjoy classic Thai specialities and order tropical cocktails at the bar. Take a cooking class and learn how to make the dishes yourself.

Take advantage of the blissful sanctuary that is the Banyan Tree spa - or try some Thai boxing. There is a shopping centre with over 30 shops, from antique shops to designer boutiques, and around Phuket, go snorkelling, kayaking, boating, hiking and caving.

Asian Buffet Dinner /International Buffet Dinner at the hotel

DAY 2 - Monday 16 MAY 2016:

Private Charter of wooden junk to Phang-Nga Bay

At 9 am you will leave AoPor pier and board your junk boat where breakfast is served. The cruise will take in fairyland Phang Nga and offer plenty of time for swimming, snorkelling and having fun in a stunning environment. At 12:30, lunch will be served on board. In the afternoon you will continue to cruise around limestone and lagoons as well as taking the time to have a personal Thai massage. At around 14:00, you will arrive in another beautiful swimming spot, KohBak Pia, and the day will finish with you visiting Koh Kudo Islands. You will return to the pier at around 5pm. Beach towels and snorkeling gear will all be provided.

You will be collected and dropped off at the hotel.

DAY 2 - Monday 16 MAY 2016:

Casual Dinner at KanEang at Pier

Predominantly wood and glass, KanEang @Pier Restaurant is a popular eatery next to the beach serving wonderfully fresh seafood, and capable of seating up to 500 people. Al fresco diners can enjoy the sea breeze and unbeatable views while sitting under huge, ancient tamarind trees. For indoor dining, three tastefully decorated air-conditioned salas and two open-sided dining salas - each with a thatched roof - afford stunning views of Chalong Bay and its numerous islands.

Inclusive of:

Reservation at KanEang @ Pier (Reserved Area)

Thai-Seafood Dinner (Food only - family sharing)

Roundtrip transfer in Private coach with English speaking guide escort, no later than 22.00hrs

DAY 3 - Tuesday 17 MAY 2016:

4 in 1 safari with lunch

Adventure specialists will take the group on a back-roads tour of Phuket by four-wheel drive vehicles, discovering parts of the island that other vehicles cannot reach. Your drive will take you to hidden beaches, jungle trails and rural areas untouched by tourism. This is a fun and exciting way to see the 'real' Phuket.

You will then go on a safari truck, travelling by local transportation on dirt roads and up mountain tracks, to the Chalong highlands. A special view point will give you a spectacular panoramic view over Phuket Island. You will visit a family at a local farm to see how they live, watch a demonstration of how to make jungle curry and learn how natural rubber latex is tapped from rubber trees.

Next up is an elephant trek, an exciting 30-minute trek on elephant back. Learn something about these magnificent beasts and the elephant conservation project 'mobile elephant clinic' and towards the end of the trek you will be able to meet some tame water buffaloes face-to-face.

Lunch will be served at the camp.

Today will begin at 9am and finish at 2pm.

 DAY 3 - Tuesday 17 MAY 2016:

Farewell Dinner at Raya Restaurant

Raya Restaurant is simply the Thai restaurant in Phuket Town. Set in a renovated Sino-Thai mansion originally built at the beginning of the 20th century, this venue literally takes its patrons back to the past, and serves them such a delicious genuine local cuisine that movie stars, prime ministers, and royalty frequent this establishment while they are in Phuket. Located on New Dibuk Road, on the side of Phuket Old Town, Raya Restaurant is certainly the best venue to discover Thai cuisine at its best; especially their crab curry, which is often ordered even from Bangkok and delivered by plane!

 DAY 4 - Wednesday 18 MAY 2016:
